

Brent Perry, Chief Deputy - Franklin County Sheriff's Office

Chief Deputy Brent Perry is a lifelong resident of Franklin County and specifically the Estill Springs area. Chief Perry graduated from Franklin County High School in 1986 and soon after began his law enforcement career. Beginning as a patrolman for the city of Decherd, Tn. in 1989 then moving to the Tullahoma Police Dept. in 1990 and eventually accepting the job as Chief Deputy with the Franklin County Sheriff's Office in 2007, Chief Perry over the course of his 25 year career has worked as a patrolman, K-9 handler, narcotics officer, supervisor of the drug investigation division, and worked in the criminal investigations division as well. Chief Perry has also attended many specialized training schools with a focus on narcotics investigations and SWAT Operations and currently serves as the SWAT team commander for the Sheriff's Office. Chief Perry has also contributed to the community by working with young people via the little league baseball program in Estill springs and the Pee Wee football league in Franklin County. Chief Perry is married to Joy Perry, his wife of twenty years and has three children Sarah (18yrs. old), Becca (14 years old) and Hunter (13 years old) and is a member of the Crossroads Baptist Church.